

Montfort school, Ashok Vihar, Delhi conducted an art competition on 25 October 2018 which sought to enlighten the mob against the aftermath of consumption of tobacco. Organised by Central board of secondary education (CBSE), the competition turned out to be a great success with the participation of zealous pupils from various classes ranging amid 6th and 11th.

With vibrant colours dominating the sheets of students, the atmosphere of the school charged up with creativity which resulted in the materialising of beautiful and eye opening art pieces.
